

Relationships Speak!

Healing Your Marriage & Relationships through Communication

Description

Does it ever feel like you and your partner are living on different planets and speaking a different language? You are not alone! Most couples experience challenges in their relationship from time to time. Whether you are arguing about what to do on Saturday night or how to raise your kids, the key to improving your relationship is enhancing your understanding and communication with each other.

During this short online workshop, you will learn simple techniques to identify why you and your partner may see the world differently, and how to resolve your conflict in a healthy & supportive way.
